DELETING A VEHICLE

To DELETE a vehicle, simply complete this form and return it by fax or email, along with the required documentation:

Since your policy requires a filing, either with the Department of Motor Vehicles or with the Public Utilities Commission (or another State/Federal agency), it is necessary that you provide the following documentation in order to delete your vehicle from your insurance policy:

If the vehicle is SOLD:

- 1) Bill of Sale or similar such as a completed transfer of liability / title.

Or if you intend to KEEP the Vehicle:

- 1) A copy of the personal vehicle registration, not commercial, &
- 2) A copy of the personal auto insurance policy, &
- 3) A copy of the PUC Passenger Carrier Equipment Statement (PL664) that is date stamped by the PUC showing that you have deleted the car, & the following statement:

I, certify that I/we no longer use this vehicle commercially. I have registered the car privately, insured it through a personal auto carrier and taken steps to remove the vehicle from my PUC equipment list. I release my commercial auto insurance carrier from any future liability that may arise from use of this vehicle.
